

1 Q. And when you say there were threats
2 what was the nature of these threats?

3 A. He was just cussing and threatening me
4 on the phone for writing bad checks, and I didn't
5 do that.

6 Q. What was the threat? I mean, you say
7 he was threatening you, what was he saying?

8 A. ~~He was cussing and screaming at me on~~
9 ~~the phone~~ and told me that I wrote him a bad check
10 and I said that I did not.

11 Q. Did he ever threaten to harm you?

12 A. No.

13 Q. And -- and ultimately he came by your
14 house and you paid him; is that correct?

15 A. That is not correct. I mailed the 16 check.

17 Q. You mailed another check?

18 A. I don't remember if I mailed another
19 one. I mailed the original check. ~~There is a bank~~
20 ~~letter that was written at the time to prove that I~~
21 ~~did not bounce the check. It was never presented~~
22 ~~to the Bank of the West.~~

23 Q. As you sit here today can you recall
24 on how many occasions, other than the one you say
25 where you pulled back the plastic and saw Nathan
26 working on the house, there -- there is that, do
27 you recall that occasion, right?

28 A. Yes.

1 Q. Then we know he did some work on your
2 house on the other two occasions where we have the
3 checks.

4 Other than those occasions do you recall
5 how many other times you saw him at your house
6 working?

7 A. No, I was rarely home during the 8 day.

9 Q. If you saw him at your house would
10 you -- saw him at your house working, what would --
11 well, strike that.

12 Do you ever recall calling Mr. Latteri or
13 anyone else and saying, hey, I got home and Nathan 14 was here working and complaining about that?

15 A. No, because I knew it wouldn't do any
16 good. That's the reason I didn't make the call.

17 Q. But as you sit here now you do recall
18 instances where you saw Nathan working on your
19 remodel?

20 A. I remember the scene in the -- day of 21 the plastic, was up there doing the electrical in 22 the addition.

23 Q. And did you tell him to get out of your 24 house at that point or --

25 A. No, it was too creepy and I did just 26 close the plastic and try to get away from him.

27 Q. Now, during -- did you ever hear Josh
28 use Nathan's name when this person came into the
